

The difference we are making

Reporting our 2021 social value achievements

SINCE 1852

The IMPACT of our activities in the community

"Some of these children and families may end up living in one of these new homes, so it's really important that they feel part of what we are building..." - Taylor-Smith, Lead Member, Grenfell, Housing and Social Investment	43% of people that attended one of our Building Lives Academies secured employment	Social Mobility PLEDGE	"I moved from Poland to England in 2016, got married and became a mum. Leaving my country required me to start again. This programme provided me with the confidence to take the next step." - Agnieszka Zabska-Losiewicz, Building Lives Academy attendee	Living Wage Employer	£13m social return on investment above local spend in 2019	"All of our candidates were aged over 29 and unemployed. They lacked confidence and needed a chance to gain construction skills. Upon completing the programme they were different men!" - Joanne Allsop, Phoenix Training	51% of attendees of our virtual work experience were girls
"This opportunity has given me a chance to start a meaningful career." - Reuben, Kickstarter	"We really appreciate the effort that the Willmott Dixon team made to augment our T Level students' learning." - Robin Goodman, Construction T level tutor, Exeter College	"When I started this course, I was unemployed.....I am truly grateful for the opportunity to go on the course and recommend it to anyone." - Steve Ochaya, Building Lives Academy attendee	2021 National Social Value Awards HIGHLY COMMENDED	Highly Commended in the Private Sector Leadership award category at the Social Value Awards 2021.	"It was inspiring to hear from such ambitious women sharing their pathways and top tips into the workforce." - Crystal Sterling, Assistant Headteacher (Sixth Form), Greatfields School	81% of our beneficiaries said that the community activities we delivered had a high impact	I liked the team from Willmott Dixon. They all demonstrated very good deaf awareness by talking clearly and using good body language to show us around the leisure centre." - Reece, student
